

DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH

Wilderness and the Diamond Approach

Dates: June 15 – June 22, 2019
Location: Central Colorado Rocky Mountains
Tuition: $750-1300 sliding scale; $70 camping fee
Guides: John Davis and Ann DeBaldo

Step outside your familiar life, be nourished by nature, find the support of community and deep listening, and receive renewal, guidance, and inspiration for your inner journey. Here, wild nature becomes a home and a mirror for your true nature.

The School of Lost Borders

For more information, contact John at johnvdavis@me.com or Ann at adebaldo@runbox.com
Or go to the School of Lost Borders website, www.schooloflostborders.org.

*For years, copying other people, I tried to know myself. From within, I couldn't decide what to do.
Unable to see, I heard my name being called. Then I walked outside. —Rumi*

THE FOUNDATIONS

This retreat draws together several powerful paths. Direct encounters with the natural world provide an accessible and powerful way into our souls' true nature. The Diamond Approach® brings a profound richness, clarity, and depth to the lessons of the wild. Its practice of open and open-ended inquiry leads to the realization of our souls' essence while helping us work through barriers to this realization. It promotes freedom which is expressed in authentic presence, fulfillment, love, and a greater sense of being at home with ourselves. The Four Shields teaching provides an inclusive, nonjudgmental map of nature and human nature – body, heart, mind, and spirit. The School of Lost Borders bases its work on immersion in the natural world, ceremonial ways of relating to the land and ourselves, and a four-fold map of our experience. The School's forms include vision fasts, rites of passage, and council practice, each of which informs the Diamond in the Rough retreats.

Integrating these paths offers a transformative journey into your aliveness, inner peace, and freedom.

THE RETREAT

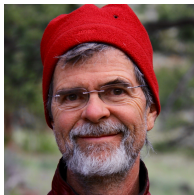

This wilderness-based retreat brings direct and immediate contact with nature to teachings and practices from the Four Shields and the Diamond Approach. Our tools include experiential inquiry, mindfulness, simple ceremony, council practice, and explorations of nature as teacher, healer, home, and self – all as the basis for deepening intimacy with our true nature.

Most days, we will gather for brief orientations to the Diamond Approach and the Four Shields with most of the day devoted to solo time in nature, a chance to explore these teachings through the lessons of wild nature. In the evening, we will share our unfolding stories. A 24-hour solo provides a chance to deepen into these inquiries.

Our basecamp will be Wild Mountain Ranch near Buena Vista, Colorado, with its open meadows, aspen groves, pine forests, rocky ridges, and extraordinary views, affording us solitude, expanse, and beauty in the Rockies. It is about 3.5 hours from Denver and Boulder and 2.5 hours from Colorado Springs. We will be able to drive to our basecamp, and you can choose how far to walk on your solos. A gear list and other details for preparation will be sent when you register. A deposit of $250 will hold your space on this retreat. Go to schooloflostborders.org for more details.

This retreat is appropriate for those who are new to the Diamond Approach and camping as well as those who have extensive experience with either of them. Previous wilderness experience is not necessary.

THE GUIDES

John has been a teacher of the Diamond Approach since 1983 and a vision fast guide and trainer since 1984. He is the author of The Diamond Approach: An Introduction to the Teachings of A. H. Almaas and leads Diamond Approach groups and trains teachers in the US, Canada, and Europe.

student of the Diamond Approach.

Ann has many years of experience in the ways of wild nature. As a former university professor and global health expert, she has specialized in leading international learning journeys to far corners of the world. Ann is a long time

*In wild places where no one lives are the conditions conducive to realization.
Therefore, heir of the Victorious Ones, go to a wild place and practice! —Shabkar*